D-DAY...A TURNING POINT

Exhibit and Program as part of the LaSalle Public Library's World War II Series

LaSalle, IL, May 11, 2015—In honor of the 70th anniversary of Victory in Europe (VE Day) and Victory over Japan (V-J Day) the LaSalle Public Library is proud to announce a free exhibit and program by Victor Croasdale. Croasdale, who grew-up in Oldhem, England witnessed first-hand, the effects of WWII on British society.

“As a youngster, I listened to my father recount some of his experiences in the Royal Air Force during WWII. Rebuilding of the areas destroyed by the Luftwaffe during the blitz, was still in progress. Throughout this I developed an interested in history and model-making,” conveys Croasdale.

Everyone is invited to see Croasdale's display of history and model-making by viewing his D-Day exhibit at the LaSalle Public Library from now until May 30th during regular library hours. Also, people are invited to attend his lecture entitled “D-Day...A Turning Point” on Tuesday, May 26th beginning at 6pm in the library's meeting room. All are welcome and light refreshments will be served. For more information or if you wish to attend the event and have special needs because of a disability, please visit the library located at 305 Marquette St., phone (815) 223-2341, or visit our webpage at www.lasalle.lib.il.us.
