Deputy City Clerk Bader reminded Council members that the City has had two previous recycling events pursuant to the Consumer Electronics Recycling Act which stipulates that some of the associated costs of recycling go back to the manufacturers. The event would be held at Rotary Park April 4, 2026, at a cost of $8,000 which is the same cost as the previous events. The first event helped dispose of 32,000 lbs. of material. The second event disposed of 26,000 lbs. of material. The original intention was to hold these events every two years. Bader indicated he believes in the past there was a two-TV limit per household at the event; specifics of the 2026 event are not known at this point.

Moved by Alderman Reynolds and seconded by Alderman Lavieri to approve and place on file an Ordinance Authorizing Agreement with A-Team Recyclers Regarding a 2026 Collection Event and Related Matters, each and every alderman has a copy.
